    e. People's Choice

4. Description of the initiative
    a. Please provide a brief summary of the initiative (no more than 75 words):

    > The CNDP virtual library is a website accessible throughout the Commission online platform that gather and deliver to the Moroccan people and the African community a large amount of knowledge in the personal data field.
    > The CNDP aim to enrich this library gradually until it becomes the reference in the data protection field across Africa.

    b. Please provide a full description of the initiative (no more than 350 words):

    > As gateways to knowledge and culture, Libraries play a fundamental role in societies; they are organizers of knowledge – adding value by cataloguing, classifying and describing them. That is why, the Moroccan Data Protection Authority has decided to launch a virtual library aiming to be the main African reference in data protection field.
    > With more than 100 books, as a start, the main goal behind the launching of the CNDP library is to deliver a higher amount of knowledge in different languages to the Moroccan and African searchers in the data protection field wherever they are and whenever they need it.
    > In order to facilitate access to the open access books, the CNDP library had adopted a very user-friendly interface that is available on its website, this interface offers a multiple search criteria (authors, titles, editions, publication dates, full-text search ….) and an overview of the collections throughout a very useful classification that helps users to easily locate books within its subject (privacy laws across the world, privacy and kids, Surveillance and monitoring, Advertising and marketing, Technology and privacy….).

c. Please explain why you think the initiative deserves to be recognised by an award (no more than 200 words)

- The CNDP library is the first library initiated in Africa.
- Delivering, gathering and preserving knowledge in the data protection field in a single database is a great step for the African continent to create its own heritage and background.
- Give the Moroccan and the African students and searchers an opportunity to discover more this field in a close way.
